

International Regulators' Forum 2022 – In Person

Date: 1st - 2nd November 2022

Location: Ottawa, Canada

Agenda: Tuesday 1 November 2022

0900-0930: Welcomes

0930-1100: Session 1: Broadband and the Digital Divide

- Gigabyte society: how to include rural and remote communities;
- Ensuring affordability and accessibility for all;
- Keeping pace with technology: satellite, fibre, device neutrality

11:00-11:30: Break

11:30-13:00: Session 2: The Race for 5G (and 6G)

- Industrial access to spectrum;
- Spectrum auctions;
- Competitor access to passive infrastructure

13:00-14:00: Lunch

14:00-15:40: Session 3: Online Platforms and Intermediaries

- Protecting and fostering online platform competition;
- Platform and intermediary liability;
- Antitrust, gatekeeping, and fair competition

15:40-16:00: Break

16:00-17:30: Session 4: Harmful Online Content and Regulation

- Combatting misinformation & disinformation;
- Balancing civility and free speech;
- Building the toolkit: digital literacy, education, and privacy protection

17:30: End of day one

Agenda: Wednesday 2 November 2022

09:15-10:45: Session 5: Harmonized Media Frameworks

- Ensuring regulatory equity between online and traditional players;
- Regulating multinationals to advance domestic priorities;
- Fostering a vibrant media environment through support mechanisms and incentives

10:45-11:15: Break

11:15-12:45: Session 6: Preparing for Organisational Transformation in Response to Legislative Change

- Coordination and collaboration (domestic and international);
- New tools and skills for regulators of the future;
- Change management in the regulatory environment

12:45: Closing remarks